

List of Christian denominations (or Denominations self-identified as Christian) ordered by historical and doctrinal relationships. (See also: Christianity; Christian denominations).

Some groups are large (e.g. Catholics, Lutherans, Anglicans or Baptists), while others are just a few small churches, and in most cases the relative size is not evident in this list. Also, modern movements such as Fundamentalist Christianity, Pietism, Evangelicalism, Pentecostalism and the Holiness movement sometimes cross denominational lines, or in some cases create new denominations out of two or more continuing groups (as is the case for many United and uniting churches, for example). Such subtleties and complexities are not clearly depicted here. Additionally, some groups viewed by non-adherents as denominational actively resist being called a "denomination" and do not have any formal denominational structure, authority, or record-keeping beyond the local congregation; several groups within Restorationism fall into this category.

Major divisions within Christianity. The different width of the lines (thickest for "Protestantism" and thinnest for "Oriental Orthodox" and "Nestorians") is without objective significance.

Catholicism

These are the churches which claim continuity (based upon Apostolic Succession) with the church before separation into Greek or Eastern and Latin or Western. (Lutheran churches have also identified themselves as catholic on the basis of continuity in doctrine with the Early Church.)

Roman Catholic Church

Latin Rite

The Latin Rite or Church<sup>[2]</sup> is the largest and most widely known of the 22 Rites of the Catholic Church. In the past, Catholics in France and Germany have claimed a measure of ecclesial independence from Rome (see Febronianism, Gallicanism), but not to the extent of forming Churches distinct from the Roman Catholic Church as a whole (as happened with the Church of England) or even from the Latin Church.

Eastern Catholic Churches

All of the following are particular churches of the Catholic Church. They are all in communion with the Bishop of Rome and acknowledge his claim of universal jurisdiction and authority. They have some minor distinct theological emphases and expressions concerning, for instance, in the case of those that are of Greek (Byzantine) tradition some aspects of the Latin depiction of purgatory.<sup>[3]</sup>

Oriental Orthodox Church

Oriental Orthodoxy comprises those Christians who did not accept the Council of Chalcedon (AD 451). Other denominations often erroneously label these churches "Monophysite", however, as the Oriental Orthodox do not adhere to the teachings of Eutyches, they themselves reject this label, preferring the term Miaphysite.

- Coptic Orthodox Church of Alexandria
  - British Orthodox Church
  - French Coptic Orthodox Church
- Syriac Orthodox Church
  - Jacobite Syrian Christian Church

- Eritrean Orthodox Tewahedo Church

Assyrian Church of the East

The Assyrian Church of the East is said to have been formed by St Thomas. The Church did not attend the Council of Ephesus (AD 431). It is incorrectly referred to as Nestorianism; Assyrian Christians do not consider themselves Nestorians, and recent Christological agreements with the Catholic and some of the Orthodox churches have resolved this debate permanently, clearing the way for union.

Latter Day Saints

Most Latter Day Saint denominations are derived from the Church of Christ established by Joseph Smith, Jr. in 1830. The majority of "Prairie Saint" denominations were established after the death of Smith by the remnants of the saints who did not go west with Brigham Young. The Rocky Mountain denominations are various sects who broke from The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints after its abandonment of polygamy in 1890. Other denominations are defined by either a belief in Joseph Smith as a prophet, or acceptance of the Book of Mormon as scripture. Mormonism is generally considered part of restorationism, believing that Smith restored the original Church of Christ to the Earth.

ISSUE	ORTHODOX	CATHOLICS
Nature of Christ	One nature from the beginning.	Two natures, human and divine
HS Proceeding From the Father	The HS proceeds from the Father only and sent by the Son.	The Holy Spirit proceeds from the Father and the Son.
Issue of Purgatory	There is not biblical proof of Purgatory. God forgives us after repentance and confession therefore there is no need of further cleansing.	Catholics believe that it is a place where, after death, people go to be cleansed of their sins by fire.
Immaculate Conception	Jesus purified her during conception as she was with sin before. Human beings cannot bring forth a pure person without the Father.	The only way St. Mary can bring forth a pure child is if she was pure, meaning without sin.
Saint Peter
Fasting	Combined with prayer, fasting is a powerful tool that teaches us discipline and helps us practice for heaven.	Catholics believe in fasting but they discount it and its purpose.
Facing East	We pray and face the east.	Catholics don't think its necessary.
Baptism by Immersion or Sprinkling	Immersion.	Sprinkling. Sa
